Policy

The salary plan, tenure provisions, and other fringe benefits of the University do not apply to officers of the armed services who are assigned to the University by such services.

Military personnel and their family members may access the tuition benefit programs as defined in Sections 8.1.8, 8.1.9, and 8.3.1. Military personnel are not subject to the credit hour limits in Section of 8.3.1.

Recipients of this benefit should be aware that there may be federal and state tax implications, and they are encouraged to consult their tax advisor.

History

August 1962
August 1974
Revised September 1993
Editorial Revision March 2008
Editorial Revision July 2011
Section Renumbered & Editorial Revision July 2012
Editorial Revision July 2013